United States Ambassador Whitelaw Reid died from pulmonary oedema, at twelve-five o'clock, after rallying early on Saturday, following the attack of acute asthma, which has troubled him for months and has prostrated him at Dorchester House, since December 3. His strength suddenly collapsed early today, the exhaustion becoming extreme. Mrs. Reid and the statesman's daughter, Mrs. John Ward, were with him when he breathed his last.

Fishermen picked up in the Santa Barbara Channel one of the pontoons of Horace Kearney's hydroplane, with which he started to fly from Los Angeles with Chester Lawrence, a newspaper reporter, as a passenger. No other sign of the hydroplane was found and it is supposed the heavy engine dragged it under the sea and that the two men were drowned.

So serious is the shortage of commissioned officers in the British navy that it has been decided to commission as lieutenants as many as one hundred Royal Navy Reservists, now employed as officers in the merchant service.

Russia and China are on the point of severing diplomatic relations. The Mongolian situation has become acute. M. Sazanoff has informed the government of China that Russia is no longer to be trifled with and that unless Mongolia is left unhampered to work out its own destiny, Russia will at once take steps to preserve Mongolia autonomy by force of arms. The government policy is denounced by the Liberals, who charge Sazanoff with "feeding the Unga Princess with chaff in order to swallow Mongolia at one gulp when the moment is opportune."

Japan has advised President Yuan Shih Kai to meet the Russian requests for Mongolian independence in a reasonable spirit. This statement is officially vouched for.

The government of Japan is actively supporting the Russian contentions.

In a letter to the State pardon board Senator Works of California made a powerful plea for the immediate pardon of his brother-in-law, Chas. Van Pelt.

Twenty-three Americans who were wounded or whose relatives were killed or wounded from shots across the Mexican border in April or May, 1911 should receive indemnities aggregating $86,000 from the Mexican government according to a report to congress by the commission of officers authorized to investigate the case. All claims of Mexicans injured on the American side by bullets from Mexican revolutionists or federals were disapproved.

Mrs. S. Anne Ross, the mother of Charlie Ross, who was kidnapped thirty-eight years ago, is dead at her home here, aged 78. She was the widow of Christian K. Ross. The fate of Charlie Ross, who was stolen when he was four years old, has never been learned although numberless clues from all sections of this country and Europe were for years followed by detectives employed by the distressed parents.

Two young German baronesses have figured in a convent romance of different kinds, says a Berlin dispatch. In St. Petersburg, the 21-year-old Countess Olga Herth has sacrificed everything, including her fortune, to enter a retreat. Baroness von Kirsch Panthos has eloped with her music instructor, Brother Wendelin, from the Frankenthal convent. They are believed to have gone to America.

The present whereabouts of Mrs. Mary Barnes, who shot and wounded Walter Mumm, a well-known French sportsman, and was herself wounded, according to reports, is still a mystery. The efforts of Paris detectives to find her and discover how seriously she was wounded, if at all, have been unsuccessful. Walter Mumm, it appears from the police commissary's report, attacked the woman during a violent quarrel and kicked her in the face and neck. Mrs. Barnes' departure from her flat took place about 9 o'clock on Friday morning. Dwellers in the same apartments, which are situated in the aristocratic quarters of Avenue du Bois de Boulogne, were awakened at 7 o'clock in the morning by an uproar in the Barnes apartment.

President-elect Wilson and his party sailed for the United States on the liner Bermudan this morning. A big crowd cheered Governor Wilson on his departure. He said: "I am feeling fine and I have had a great vacation."

"Russia," says Count Witte, the most distinguished living Russian statesman, "is in a period of transition, the country having another perfect constitution of a purely absolutist regime. Neither liberals or conservatives were more completely in accord with the imperial manifesto announcing the introduction of the new constitution."

Y. W. Dickey, commissary steward of the battleship Louisiana, around whom were centered charges of a graft scandal in the commissariat of the Atlantic fleet, was found guilty of "scandalous conduct" by a navy courtmartial board, and sentenced to five years at hard labor.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Mary Goode, whose testimony before the Aldermanic committee has thrown fear into the police, keepers of disorderly houses who have been victims of extortion by the system, met today and organized to aid the investigators. Mrs. Goode visited Mrs. Belmont yesterday and from the social leader today came assurance that the union would be given every assistance.

What About That Dandruff?

There is just this much about it: Dandruff is a germ disease, is most untidy, annoying, and leads to baldness. When chronic, it is very stubborn, but surely yields to thorough and energetic treatment. All germs must be destroyed, the scalp must be restored to health. Here is the remedy: Ayer's Hair Vigor. Ask your doctor about using it.

Ayer's Hair Vigor DOES NOT COLOR THE HAIR

at Philadelphia with sugar from the Hawaiian islands, will carry a cargo of coal to Mare Island, Cal., on her next voyage to the Pacific coast. The tug Britannia will tow her here on Tuesday.

Every preparation has been completed for the conference between the plenipotentiaries of the Balkan Allies and those from Turkey in St. James Palace here, beginning tomorrow. Ex-Premier Stojan Novakovich, of Serbia, it is understood, will preside at the opening of the conference, but that he will be permanent chairman is still undecided. While the basis of the terms to be demanded by the Allies are known in a general way, and assertions made by the Turkish plenipotentiaries have been given publicity, the real and final demands have not been made public and probably will be held confidential until a settlement is reached or failure is confessed. Special dispatches from Athens, Greece, on the eve of the peace conference, show that warlike proceedings are continuing in Epirus, where several clashes between Grecian and Turkish troops are reported.

The chiefs of the four Balkan missions to the conference have drawn up the terms of the Allies, intending to present a united front to the Turkish plenipotentiaries. The terms are kept secret for the present and the plenipotentiaries of the Ottoman government have decided that similar silence shall be kept throughout the entire peace conference unless it should be considered advisable to issue communications from time to time. This, however, must have the concurrence of all the plenipotentiaries. The delegates of the Balkan league have decided to propose Stojan Novakovich, the Serbian ex-premier, the oldest plenipotentiary, as chairman, but should the Turkish delegates object, an arrangement will be made by which the head of each mission shall preside alternatively over the proceedings. Premier Eleutherios Venizelos of Greece had been singled out as presiding officer, but he tactfully withdrew in favor of the candidacy of Novakovich. The Balkan nations have reached a unanimous agreement as to the attitude on certain questions likely to be brought up before the conference and it is differences exist they have been put into the background for the present at any rate.

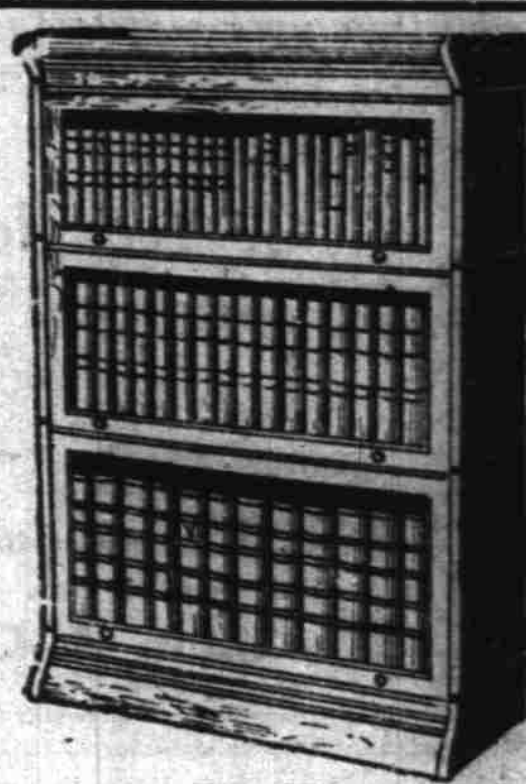

Spurred to action by the revelations of Mary Goode, keeper of a disorderly house, concerning "protection" money exacted by the police, District Attorney Whitman is directing the most efficient police investigation since the scandal involved by the arrest of Police Lieut. Charles Becker for the murder of Herman Rosenthal. Representatives of Whitman's office this afternoon admitted that a superficial investigation had shown that the conditions outlined by Mrs. Goode as prevailing in New York are true.

Why did the delegates to the Milwaukee convention of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Ironworkers, with their faces turned towards the west, offer a silent prayer after the arrest of John J. McNamara? This question was asked of George Anderson, a defendant in Saturday's session of the so-called dynamite conspiracy trial. It was at this Milwaukee convention that McNamara was reelected secretary and treasurer of the Ironworkers' association and was voted a gold watch. Anderson denied every allegation that was of an incriminating nature.

The published accounts of the expenses of the city and county for the past year, just issued, show that the expense to the taxpayers of the trials of the McNamara brothers and of Clarence Darrow, their attorney, indicted for alleged jury-bribing, was a quarter of a million dollars.
